

<https://www.observatoiredeparis.psl.eu/the-library.html>

The Library

Date de mise en ligne : mercredi 27 février 2013

Observatoire de Paris - PSL Centre de recherche en astronomie et astrophysique

The Library offers documentation and services to researchers and keeps historical collections from Paris Observatory.

Search all the catalogues of the Library Catalog of printed books and journals Electronic resources Calames (archival collections) Cosmos (museum collections) Digital library

PSL resources

It is one of the most beautiful astronomical-astrophysical libraries in the world. The Library has two core missions : providing researchers with the most complete and relevant documentation and services, preserving and enhancing a 350-year-old heritage which still expands today.

Although the Library is mainly devoted to Paris Observatory scientists, it is also accessible to other audiences, mainly researchers in astronomy-astrophysics and historians.

Practical information

Documentary resources

Heritage collections

Services for the public

Presentation of the Library